COVID-19 State of Emergency: Tenant Rights & Resources

The purpose of this document is to help District renters understand their rights and available resources during the COVID-19 Public Health Emergency (“PHE”) declared by Mayor Muriel Bowser. Mayor Bowser has extended the PHE through Sunday, July 25, 2021.\(^2\) The D.C. Office of the Tenant Advocate (OTA) has suspended its regular walk-in hours, Mondays through Thursdays, 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, for the duration of the PHE. We are otherwise committed to providing our full range of services.

I. OTA Telecommute Services

a. Legal Branch: Tenants needing legal services should contact OTA’s hotline. Either:
   i. Go online to https://ota.dc.gov/; click on “OTA Housing Assistance” and “Community Service”; click on “Ask the Director” and complete the request; and then click “Submit”; or
   ii. Call 202-719-6560 and leave a message.

b. Policy Branch: Tenants who have requests or questions regarding policy matters should send an email to Legislative Director Joel Cohn at Joel.Cohn@dc.gov.

c. Outreach and Education Branch: Tenants who have requests or questions regarding education and outreach services should contact the OTA’s Education and Outreach Coordinator, Cristobal Puig-Monsen, at Cristobal.Puig@dc.gov or (202) 317-2861.

d. Emergency Housing Assistance: OTA will respond to displacements in collaboration with the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA), DC Homeland Security (HSEMA), or the American Red Cross.

II. Tenant rights & protections during the PHE\(^2\)

a. Rent Increase Freeze & Rent Collection
   i. Rent increase freeze:
      1. Rent increases are prohibited during the PHE and for 30 days thereafter. This applies to rent controlled and non-rent-controlled units alike.
      2. Any rent increase notice that was issued during the PHE, or that was to take effect during the PHE, is null and void. The landlord must issue a new 30-day notice when the PHE ends.

\(^1\) See Mayor’s Order 2021-069, Section XII (effective 5/21/21) and Act 24-0079 (effective 5/19/21 – 8/17/21).

\(^2\) Except where otherwise noted, the tenant rights and protections listed in section II of this document are found in Act 24-0096, the “Coronavirus Support Congressional Review Emergency Amendment Act of 2021” (effective 6/7/21 – 9/5/21). Act 24-0096 replaces and generally incorporates the tenant rights and protections previously enacted as part of Act 23-0247; Act 23-0286; Act 23-0299; Act 23-0317; Act 23-0326, Act 23-0328; Act 23-0405; Act 23-0332; Law 23-0130; and Act 24-0030. Temporary legislation (Act 24-0062) to extend the provisions of Act 24-0096 for 225 days is expected to take effect on or around 6/29/21. However, note that all tenant protections therein are nonetheless tied to the duration of the PHE or a set number of days thereafter.
3. Any rent increase notice that was issued before the PHE, but that was to take effect after the PHE, is also null and void. The landlord must issue a new 30-day notice when the PHE ends.

ii. Tenant duty to pay frozen rent amount: The laws governing tenant’s duty to pay rent, other than rent increases, have not changed.

   1. Except as explained in item (iii) below, the tenant is still obligated to pay rent in the amount charged just prior to the start of the PHE.
   2. In the event of financial hardship, the tenant should notify the housing provider and ask for an alternative payment plan. Any such plan should be put in writing and should be achievable.

iii. Rent Payment Plans:

   1. Landlords must develop a rent payment plan and make it available to tenants during the PHE and for one year thereafter.
   2. The plan must cover all rent due during the PHE, and for up to one year thereafter, so long as the tenant remains a tenant.
   3. The landlord must also include in the rent payment plan any amenity fee or other fee that is a part of the lease.
   4. To be eligible, a tenant must demonstrate to the landlord that the PHE caused the tenant a direct or indirect financial hardship.
   5. Rent payment plans must have a minimum term length of one year, unless the tenant requests a shorter term.
   6. Any repayment of the deferred rent amount shall be made in equal monthly installments, unless the tenant requests otherwise.
   7. The tenant cannot lose any rights under the lease by entering into a payment plan.
   8. Landlords must establish an application procedure, and must accept applications by telephone and online; the landlord cannot deny an application that includes certain supporting documentation.
   9. The tenant may file a complaint with the Rent Administrator if the landlord denies their application for a rent payment plan. Tenants should use the Rent Administrator’s official Tenant Payment Plan Complaint form (Form 24), which can be found at this link in several languages.
   10. The landlord is not allowed to report to credit bureaus any delinquency arising from the tenant’s participation in a payment plan.

Last revised on June 17, 2021
iv. Form of payment: The laws governing the form of rent payments have not changed.
   1. If the lease requires the tenant to pay by money order or in a fashion that requires the tenant to leave their home, the tenant may contact the housing provider to discuss alternative payment options.
   2. Alternative options may include paying rent online via a wire transfer or an app such as Venmo, PayPal, Zelle, or otherwise.
   3. The agreement should be in writing, and it should specify the period of time during which the agreed upon options are available to the tenant (likely at least until the PHE ends).

b. Evictions

   Landlords are generally prohibited from evicting tenants during the PHE. However, please note:

   i. As of May 3, 2021, during the PHE a landlord may evict a tenant whose continuing presence at the building presents a current and substantial threat to the health and safety of tenants or others through the unlawful possession of a firearm, threats or acts of violence, or assault.\(^4\)

   ii. In any other case, a landlord may not:
      1. Issue a notice to vacate to the tenant during the PHE and for 60 days thereafter;\(^5\)
      2. File an eviction action in Superior Court during the PHE plus 60 days;\(^6\)
      3. Serve an eviction summons during the PHE;
      4. Carry out an eviction during the PHE;
      5. Engage in any action that is intended to force a tenant to leave housing or otherwise give up rights under the law during the PHE and for 60 days thereafter;\(^5\) or
      6. Carry out an eviction following the PHE without first scheduling the eviction anew,\(^7\) and providing the tenant with 21 days’ notice of the eviction date.\(^8\)

   iii. As is the case under non-PHE law, a landlord cannot evict a tenant without a court order.

\(^4\) Act 24-67, the “Eviction Moratorium Public Safety Exception Emergency Amendment Act of 2021” (effective 5/3/21-8/1/21).
\(^5\) Items (1) and (5) are found in Law 23-172, the “Eviction Notice Moratorium Temporary Amendment Act of 2020” (12/23/20-8/4/21).
\(^6\) The D.C. Superior Court previously invalidated the moratorium on eviction filings on 12/16/20 (D.C. Sup. Ct. Case Nos. 2020 LTB 6637, 6315, 6770, 8032, and 8107). However, that decision has been stayed pending appeal as of 5/13/21. Therefore, the moratorium on eviction filings has been reinstated for now.
\(^7\) The requirement to schedule any previously scheduled evictions anew following the PHE is a U.S. Marshals Service policy and is not found in local law.
\(^8\) Law 22-0245, the “Eviction with Dignity Act of 2018” (effective 3/13/19).
c. Utility Services & Late Fees
   i. Utility companies (electric, gas, water, cable, and telecommunications) are prohibited from disconnecting services during the state of PHE and for 15 days following the end of the PHE.
   ii. Once this period ends, electric, gas, cable, and telecommunications companies must give 45-day notice before disconnecting service.\(^9\)
   iii. Please note, cable and telecommunications companies may reduce services during the PHE due to the nonpayment of a bill, so long as they maintain a basic level of service.
   iv. Housing providers are prohibited from charging a late fee during the PHE. A fee for late payment of rent due March 1\(^{st}\), 2020 remains valid, if the grace period expired before the start of the PHE on March 11\(^{th}\), 2020.

d. Utility Payment Plans
   i. A utility provider (gas, electric, DC Water, telecommunications, cable) must offer a payment plan for eligible customers for amounts that come due during the program period.
   ii. The “program period” is the PHE plus:
      1. 60 days for a cable or telecommunications operator not regulated by the Public Service Commission.
      2. Six months for any other utility provider.
   iii. To be eligible, a customer must notify the provider of an inability to pay all or a portion of the amount due as a result of the PHE.
   iv. During the PHE, a utility provider regulated by the Public Service Commission shall reconnect service to occupied residential property upon customer request and not charge a fee for this reconnection.

e. Deadlines for the Exercise of Tenant and Tenant Association Rights
   i. All deadlines for the exercise of tenant and tenant association rights under both the Rental Housing Act of 1985, and the Rental Housing Conversion and Sale Act of 1980 (including TOPA),\(^10\) have been extended.
   ii. Specifically, any such deadline is tolled – or paused – until the end of the PHE plus an additional 30 days.
   iii. Example:
      1. Tenants in a building with 5 or more units receive an offer of sale on March 1, 2020, from the housing provider.

\(^9\) Public Service Commission, Emergency Rulemaking RM3-2021-01 (effective 3/3/21-7/1/21).
\(^10\) As of 2/26/21, the tolling of tenant deadlines under the Rental Housing Conversion and Sale Act of 1980 was removed from the COVID-19 emergency legislation. Instead, this tolling provision is now placed within separate legislation: Act 24-21, the “TOPA COVID-19 Tolling Exemption for Low Income Housing Tax Credit Transfers Emergency Amendment Act of 2021” (effective 2/26/21-5/27/21). The tolling requirement remains exactly the same, except that it exempts transfers of an interest to allow for the exit and replacement of equity investors under the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) program so long as the relevant affordability requirements continue. All other tenant TOPA and conversion deadlines remain tolled during the PHE.
2. Under the law, they have 45 days, or until April 15, 2020, to create a tenant association and submit to the landlord a letter of interest in purchasing the building.
3. On March 11, 2020, the Mayor declared the PHE.
4. When the PHE expires, the tenants will have a total of 65 days (45 – 10 + 30) to respond to the offer of sale.

f. Tenant Notices of Intent to Vacate
   i. The tenant may elect to toll or pause a Notice of Intent to Vacate submitted to the landlord prior to the PHE for the PHE’s duration.
   ii. When the PHE ends, the tenant will have exactly the same number of days remaining to vacate unit as they had before the PHE started.
   iii. The tenant will not be deemed to be a “holdover tenant,” one who fails to vacate by the date promised. This is important because under DC law, a holdover tenant can be evicted and is liable for double the rent.

g. Landlord access to rental units
   i. The laws governing landlord access to a rental unit have not been changed. The landlord has the right to enter the unit to conduct repairs, inspections, or to show the unit to a prospective purchaser, if they comply with existing law.
   ii. Tenants should be aware of the existing law. Except in the case of an emergency situation in the building, the landlord:
      1. Must provide the tenant with a 48-hour written notice (a text message or email suffices); and
      2. May only access the unit Monday through Saturday, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., except for District holidays, unless the tenant agrees otherwise.
   iii. Regarding concerns about spreading COVID-19, the tenant may request that the landlord defer non-essential work until after the PHE, and inquire about the health and safety precautions being taken. All parties should:
      1. Practice social distancing;
      2. Wear masks or face covering;
      3. Make sure that the apartment is cleaned / disinfected after visitors leave;
      4. Wash hands with soap and hot water for 20 seconds.

h. Cleaning of Common Areas
   i. The landlord must clean common areas on a regular basis, including surfaces that are regularly touched, such as doors, railings, seating, and the exterior of mailboxes.
   ii. The Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs has issued regulations elaborating on these cleaning requirements. The text of these regulations can be viewed here.

Last revised on June 17, 2021
iii. The Mayor has also provided COVID-19 guidance that pertains to common area cleaning and other important precautions in residential buildings. That guidance is available at https://coronavirus.dc.gov/healthguidance.

i. Masks in Common Areas
   i. Individuals are required to follow Department of Health (DC Health) mask and cloth face covering guidance, keeping in mind that DC Health guidance may change with changing conditions and new information on the spread of the coronavirus.\textsuperscript{13} The current guidance can be found at https://coronavirus.dc.gov/healthguidance.
   ii. As of the revision date of this document, DC Health guidance only advises that partially vaccinated or unvaccinated individuals should wear masks in residential common areas. However, tenants should follow their respective buildings’ policies, which may still require all individuals to wear masks in common areas.

j. Amenity Fee Refunds for Rent Controlled Units
   i. Where the tenant pays an amenity fee in addition to the rent, and where the amenity is made temporarily unavailable due to the PHE order, the landlord must provide a pro rata refund of the fee.
   ii. Where a service or facility fee is lawfully included in the rent charged, and the service or facility is made temporarily unavailable due to the PHE order, the landlord does not have to reduce the rent charged.

III. Tenant Associations (TA)
   a. A TA should heed the Mayor’s COVID-19 emergency orders and District government and federal CDC orders, including not hosting in-person meetings involving social gathering.
   b. If a TA needs to hold a special meeting, it should explore and execute an online option.
   c. If a TA needs to hold a vote during the PHE, the TA should consider amending the bylaws to permit electronic, online, or virtual voting as appropriate.
   d. If you have relevant questions or concerns, contact OTA’s Education and Outreach Coordinator Cristobal Puig-Monsen at Cristobal.Puig@dc.gov or (202) 317-2861.

IV. Court Procedures
   a. D.C. Superior Court: Evictions
      i. Landlord & Tenant Court will conduct remote hearings, trials, and evidentiary hearings, but does not include any eviction cases and foreclosure cases involving residential homes not occupied by owners or heirs.
      ii. The landlord may not file an eviction action in court until 60 days following the end of the PHE.\textsuperscript{14}

\textsuperscript{14} See footnote 6.
iii. Tenants must have the technological capabilities, access to WebEx, or a phone, to attend the remote hearings.    ii. In the event of an emergency need for court action – including at Housing Conditions Calendar -- tenants can file emergency motions and applications for waiver of prepayment of cost (Fee Waiver Applications) by emailing these documents to Civilefilings@dcsc.gov.
   iii. Tenants should NOT go to the Moultrie Court House to file emergency motions.

c. D.C. Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH)
   i. OAH is operating on a modified schedule and conducting hearings remotely on a limited capacity.
   ii. OAH will notify the litigants of their new hearing date.
   iii. Until further notice, all hearings will be conducted by telephone.
   iv. If you cannot participate in a hearing by telephone or do not want to, you must advise OAH. OAH will reschedule your hearing to a time when in-person hearings are authorized to resume.
   v. Please, communicate with OAH electronically, by emailing OAH at oah.filing@dc.gov, or call 202-442-9094.
